

SAINT MARGARET
SCHOOL

SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENT
MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

1. Read one novel assigned for your upcoming grade level AND one novel from the "Choice List"
2. Create a "One -Pager" for 2 separate novels (see attached templates)
3. Both "One - Pagers" are DUE on the first day of school 2023

GRADE LEVEL NOVELS:

Entering 6th Grade: Fish in a Tree Lynda Mullaly Hunt

Entering 7th Grade: Ghost by Jason Reynolds

Entering 8th Grade: Farewell to Manzanar by Jeanne Wakatsuki-Huston OR Code Talker by Joseph Bruchac

"CHOICE LIST" : See attached book list

A one-pager is a creative way to represent your thoughts in words and pictures. When you create a one-pager, you are trying to use visual pictures and important words to connect to your ideas. As you complete this one pager, you may follow the structure of the outline exactly or take off in your own direction. If you need some help getting started, view the information below to help you generate some ideas and guide you! You may complete this in whatever way that looks best to you. Be creative and have fun!

Information to include:

Border: One longer, powerful quote or 4 shorter quotes from your favorite part (text) from the novel read(and "who" said them).

Top left box: (Using words/quotes or images) – Represent your favorite character from the novel.

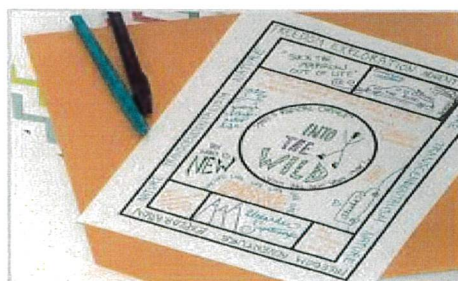

Top right box: (Using words/quotes or images) – Represent significant parts of the setting.

Ride-side triangle: (Using words/quotes or images) –Represent the overall message (theme) from the author.

Left-side triangle: (Using words/quotes or images) – Something that will " stick with you" from reading the novel.

Lower right box: (Using words/quotes or images) – What other novels, movies, or songs relate to the novel read.

Lower left box: (Using words/quotes or images) – Represent the title, author, and genre of the novel.
